

CAROLYN WOODRUFF ROGERS
YORK COUNTY PROBATE JUDGE

Carolyn Rogers graduated from Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia and the University of Georgia School of Law. She is admitted to the state Bars of Georgia, Virginia and South Carolina. Prior to her election as York County's probate judge in 2010, she practiced law in Rock Hill for 23 years in the areas of estates and trusts, probate litigation, land use regulation, and commercial and residential real estate.

Before her election, she was Council chair for the Probate, Estates and Trusts Section of the South Carolina Bar. She was also a member of the study committee for the adoption of the S. C. Trust Code and then co-chair of the technical corrections committee for the Trust Code. She served on the probate code revision committee which worked from 2009 until 2013 to update both the probate and trust codes, and on the forms committee of the South Carolina Association of Probate Judges.
